All NOVA 2017 reservations and registrations require a completed online registration by the purchaser, verbal or e-mail orders will not be accepted. Invoices will be automatically provided at the time of reservation / registration online.

After November 01, 2017 you are responsible for providing full payment for your reservations to the AACO office by November 24, 2017 regardless of invoice notations.

All payments are due 30 days from the date of original invoice or by November 24, 2017, whichever date is earlier.

Upon advance written notice to the AACO, you may divide your total balance due in up to three equal monthly payments although one total invoice will be provided to you for each reservation / registration. Your up to three equal payments will be due net 30, net 60 and net 90 days from the original date of your invoice.

All sales that include tickets will be seated at the event in the order the reservation is made through our online reservation / registration. However, forward seating preference will always be given to Sponsorships that include tickets. Corporate Tables and individual Tickets are not considered as sponsorships.

If your company makes multiple reservations at different times, you may request to all be seated in the same location. Your request will be considered based on availability and order of your latest purchase.
